GERMAN TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYER SUNK BY BRITISH

An English Submarine Makes
Makes Another Daring Raid
Into German Waters

London, Oct. 7.—Submarine E-9 of the British navy, under command of Lieut. Commander Max M. Horton, yesterday made another raid into German waters off the mouth of the river Ems and succeeded in sinking a German torpedo boat destroyer. This same submarine, under the same commander, made a similar dash and sank the German cruiser Hela off Heligoland September 13. As on the former occasion, the E-9 has safely returned to her home port.

The action took place at 1 o'clock yesterday and was witnessed by the Dutch coast guards on the Dutch island Schiermonnikoog in the North sea off the province of Friesland.

Great Opportunities

This is an age of opportunity. It is easier to do business now with a bank on which you can check, than it was in the old days of coon skins and wampum.

The young man of today lives in a time when great opportunities are at his command. If he uses economy in the conduct of his affairs, is modern and has an account at the bank, the chances for him to attain financial success are greater than those of his father of his grand father. It is never too late to cultivate the banking habit, which is the modern gateway to success.
